

Dinner opportunities within walking distance of Rincon Congregational church:

Walk to the intersection of Broadway and Craycroft (pass the Hobby Lobby sign near the front parking lot.)

Feel free to get take out and bring it back to the church garden or patio!

There are possibilities on every corner:

“Hobby Lobby” corner (Northeast)

Potbelly Sandwiches (you can see the sign from Rincon’s parking lot)

<https://www.potbelly.com/stores/23211>

El Pollo Loco - Grilled chicken with Mexican accompaniments (Walk toward Potbelly and then turn left. Pollo Loco will be about 50 yards ahead of you)

<http://www.elpolloloco.com/locations/store/3816>

Graze - Burgers and fries. Outside patio dining (Walk toward Potbelly and turn left. Graze will be just beyond El Pollo Loco)

<https://www.yelp.com/biz/graze-tucson-2>

“BJ’s” on the Southeast corner. Big sports bar and restaurant. salads, entrees, bar and televisions!

<https://www.allmenus.com/az/tucson/306436-bjs-restaurant-brewhouse/menu/>

“Corner with Palm trees and Fed Ex sign” Southwest

Olive Garden - a 5-10 minute walk - Italian food. big chain, no surprises

(Walk past the palm trees to your right. You’ll see Olive garden about 50 yards down Broadway Blvd)

<https://www.olivegarden.com/menu-listing/dinner?view=list>

Monkey Burger - 10 minute walk? locally owned. variations on burgers, salads and shakes

(Past Olive Garden in strip mall almost to Rosemont Blvd, next to Pita Jungle)

<http://monkeyburgerrestaurant.com/menu.html>

Pita Jungle - 10 minute walk? vegan, Gluten Free options -

(Past Olive Garden in strip mall, almost to Rosemont Blvd, next to Monkey Burger)

https://www.tripadvisor.com/Restaurant_Review-g60950-d2054836-Reviews-Pita_Jungle-Tucson_Arizona.html

“Sleep number corner” Northwest

Jimmy John’s sandwiches - big sandwiches, very forthcoming about allergens, has GF options

<https://www.jimmyjohns.com/menu/#/>